We teach practical and useful knowledge of the German language for profession and leisure at all levels of proficiency.

The lessons are held in German. From the first minute to the last you hear and speak the German language. In doing so, you learn successfully and effectively and save time. Don't be surprised to find yourself taking active part in the course after only a few minutes.

We will practice with you German you are unable to learn at home alone. Through active question and answer dialogues, you will be speaking sooner than you thought possible.

In no time at all you will take over and ask questions of your own. The lessons are progressive. From the basic, to the intermediate, all the way to fluency, one step follows the other.

Because the lessons are held predominantly verbally, your active use of the German language will take huge steps in, and outside, the classroom.

All German as a Foreign Language courses (DaF) are held in accordance with the European Union Collective Reference Agreement for Languages (Gemeinsamer europäischer Referenzrahmen für Sprachen), this recognized standard of language ability is

The levels are:

Elementary Foreign Language Use (A1 & A2):

The participant understands complete sentences and phrases used in everyday situations. Can communicate on a basic level.

Natural Language Use (B1 & B2):

The participant is able to understand the main subject of complex texts, understands and answers complex situations spontaneously and fluently, and explains a personal point of view in practically all situations.

Proficient Language Use (C1 & C2):

C1: Can understand a wide range of demanding, longer texts, and recognise implicit meaning. Can express him / herself fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions. Can use language flexibly and effectively for social, academic and professional purposes. Can produce clear, well-structured, detailed text on complex subjects, showing controlled use of organisational patterns, connectors and cohesive devices.

C2: Can understand with ease virtually everything heard or read. Can summarise information from different
